This Site is just to the north of a 10 acres site that was recently purchased by an experienced development group who will begin construction of a state-of-the-art Family Fun Center in 2010. The Family Fun Center will include a bowling alley, batting cages, bumper cars, putt-putt golf, go-carts, bumper water boats, climbing walls, laser tag and a 52,000 sq. ft. building with arcade and other games. This facility will be open year round and is expected to draw customers from over 100 miles.

Helping Development, the site is in the Town of Johnstown, who is committed to providing potable water and sewer services. Non-potable water, electric and gas service are installed and will be provided to site. All projects in 2534 are on a "fast track" approval process with the Town of Johnstown.

INVESTMENT OVERVIEW

This 6.5 acre +/- (gross acreage) parcel lies in the heart of the major retail and development area of Loveland, Colorado. The parcel has prime freeway (I-25) and highway (US 34) visibility from all directions and is the perfect high-visibility location. The site is available in whole or as 1+ acre pad sites. The site is south of a new 700,000 square-foot lifestyle center anchored by Macy's, Centerra, and across the interstate from an established outlet mall and new regional medical center. Loveland is a fast growing town south of Fort Collins, home to Colorado State University. This site is at the intersection of Loveland/Greeley/Ft. Collins and Windsor. It is also within an hour drive of Cheyenne, Wyoming. 45 away on US 34 is Estes Park, the gateway to Rocky Mountain National Park. A Family Fun Center will begin construction on 10 acres directly adjacent to the Site, which provides an excellent opportunity for synergies with sit-down and fast-casual restaurant concepts, hotel/motels and retailers.
